PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO COMPEL APPEARANCE OF CAROL CAFIERO AT DEPOSITION PURSUANT TO RULE 37(a)

Plaintiffs, Blake J. Robbins, a Minor, by his Parents and natural Guardians, Michael E. Robbins and Holly S. Robbins, Individually, and on Behalf of all Similarly Situated Persons (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Plaintiffs"), by their undersigned counsel, Lamm Rubenstein LLC, move this Honorable Court for an Order compelling the appearance of Carol Cafiero ("Cafiero"), Information System Coordinator, an employee by Defendant Lower Merion School District and, in support thereof, aver as follows:

1. On February 16, 2010, Plaintiffs filed a Class Action Complaint against Defendants, Lower Merion School District, The Board of Directors of the Lower Merion School District, and Christopher W. McGinley (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Defendants"), in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

2. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference each and every allegation set forth in Plaintiffs' Class Action Complaint as if fully set forth at length herein.

3. Since the filing of Plaintiffs' Class Action Complaint, Defendants have admitted that the laptop computers issued to all high school students in the Lower Merion School District contain software which enables Defendants to remotely activate webcams embedded in the laptops. A copy of the statement is attached hereto as Exhibit A and speaks for itself as to Defendant's admissions.

4. Upon information and belief, and Defendant School District has also admitted, that Cafiero is one of only two employees of Defendant with direct day- to- day responsibility for the use, operation and implementation of all procedures involving the School-issued laptop computers, including use of the "peeping Tom technology."

5. Based on discovery obtained to date, Lower Merion School District has no written procedures or other safeguards to prevent Cafiero any other person from activating the embedded webcam contained in the School District webcam at any time she or any other person so chooses.

6. Cafiero also has direct responsibility to control and employ activation of the webcam by others without knowledge of the School District.

7. Immediately, upon conclusion of the mandatory Rule 26(f) conference, Plaintiffs, as is their right under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, initiated the issuance of discovery subpoenas to persons, firms or companies that may have information that is relevant or admissible to the issues involved in the litigation or that may lead to such information.

8. Such discoverable information is necessary to answer the "who, what, why, when and where" questions on the use of the School District's spying software.

9. The parties agreed to a Stipulated Order on March 10, 2010 (the "Stipulated Order"), which, among other things, recognized the importance of the parties ascertaining at the earliest opportunity "the extent to which the laptop tracking software application was used" and "to what extent there exists evidence of the use of the laptop tracking software application (such as webcam photographs)."

10. The Stipulated Order reflects that the parties were “hopeful that this information [would] enable an expeditious and cost-effective resolution of this action that is in the best interests of the parties and LMSD students, parents and taxpayers.”

11. One of the essential depositions that is needed to allow this matter to be expeditiously resolved is the deposition of Cafiero.

12. Depositions of other key employees like Michael Perbix and Lindy Matsko have been cooperatively scheduled.

13. Criminal defense counsel for Cafiero agreed to accept service of the Subpoena which contained an original return date of March 16, 2010. A true and correct copy of the served Subpoena is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

14. Due to a planned vacation of Cafiero’s criminal defense counsel, the original return date of the Subpoena was changed.

15. At the time this request was made by Cafiero’s criminal defense counsel, no mention was made that there was any reason why Cafiero would not be produced for her deposition.

16. As a consequence of that request by Cafiero’s criminal defense counsel, Plaintiffs’ counsel, as a courtesy, agreed to reschedule the Cafiero deposition.

17. In furtherance of the Stipulated Order’s goal of an expeditious resolution, the parties reached an amicable accord for full disclosure of discoverable materials, which included the taking of the depositions of Perbix, Matsko and Cafiero on April 7, 8 and 9.

18. By email from Plaintiffs’ counsel, a request to Cafiero’s criminal defense counsel was made that he select from among the three party agreed upon dates in April for the Cafiero deposition, specifically April 7, 8 or 9.

19. Despite several additional email requests that he select a date for his client's deposition, Cafiero's criminal defense counsel first failed to respond and then on March 17, 2010, responded by refusing to produce his client at all, now claiming instead that her deposition was "premature."

20. There is no basis in law for a non-party witness to claim that a deposition is "premature."

21. Moreover, upon information and belief, due to Defendants' prior activities in using the "peeping Tom technology" and/or as a precaution to prevent any possible claim that evidence of the use of the "peeping Tom technology" was destroyed, the Defendant School District has placed Cafiero on paid administrative leave.

22. Since Cafiero is being paid by the taxpayers of Lower Merion School District not to work, rather than refusing to cooperate which will delay a resolution of the case, Cafiero should be fully cooperating.

23. Since the United States Department of Justice and the Montgomery County District Attorney's office have launched separate criminal investigations, and since the United States Senate has launched its own investigation and has indicated the need to conduct hearings, it is believed and therefore averred that Cafiero's refusal to appear for her deposition, despite issuance of a Subpoena, has more to do with her effort to avoid incriminating herself rather than some nonsensical and non-existent claim that her deposition is "premature."

24. Plaintiffs' counsel has no information that Cafiero has been informed that she is either the target or subject of any criminal investigation by any law enforcement agency and thus any claim of presumed invocation of her Fifth Amendment privilege is perhaps what may really be termed "premature."

25. Nevertheless, notwithstanding any possible criminal culpability and notwithstanding any indication that she is either the target or subject of a criminal investigation, the Plaintiffs have the right to take her deposition and obtain her “on the record” refusal to answer questions put to her, invoking her right not to incriminate herself under the Fifth Amendment, if that is her real motivation for refusing to appear.

26. Unquestionably, Cafiero is a key employee of the Defendant School District whose deposition is required in order to expeditiously resolve this litigation.

27. Cafiero and others had the absolute and unfettered ability, at any time and under any conditions, to activate the spying software whenever she elected.

28. Cafiero, using the spying software, may have captured images, video and computer screenshots, authorized or unauthorized, and may have evidence of her actions in her possession.

29. Cafiero may have intentionally, carelessly or negligently permitted or allowed others to access the spying software, without official sanction, in violation of privacy rights and the Fourth Amendment of the victims of such unlawful use.

30. Cafiero’s unfettered right to use the spying software may have resulted in her use of the spying software for purposes other than the Defendant School District’s announced policy of tracking lost or stolen laptops.

31. Cafiero, upon information and belief, also engaged in communications with the software publisher and may have gained knowledge on uses of the spying software not generally known by or shared with the Defendants.

32. Upon information and belief, the spying software has the capability to perform more functions, and perform more functions surreptitiously, than it was believed was generally known when it was installed.

33. By way of example only, Cafiero may have relevant information on the supposed possibility of the spying software to be activated, resulting in the activation of the embedded camera, without the attendant green camera activation light coming on.

34. Cafiero may have relevant information on why many students of the Defendant School District have reported laptop camera activations despite never having reported their laptops to be either lost or stolen.

35. For all of the above reasons, the Cafiero deposition is relevant and necessary to develop a full factual understanding of the use of the spying software by Defendant School District and its employees and is thus absolutely necessary, along with other key discovery, to permit a complete and expeditious resolution of the litigation in the best interests of all litigants, the students of the School District, their parents and the taxpayers of the District.

Respectfully submitted,

LMSD initial response to invasion of privacy allegation

Updated 2/18/10 5:26 PM

Dear LMSD Community,

Last year, our district became one of the first school systems in the United States to provide laptop computers to all high school students. This initiative has been well received and has provided educational benefits to our students.

The District is dedicated to protecting and promoting student privacy. The laptops do contain a security feature intended to track lost, stolen and missing laptops. This feature has been deactivated effective today.

The following questions and answers help explain the background behind the initial decision to install the tracking-security feature, its limited use, and next steps.

- Why are webcams installed on student laptops?

The Apple computers that the District provides to students come equipped with webcams and students are free to utilize this feature for educational purposes.

- Why was the remote tracking-security feature installed?

Laptops are a frequent target for theft in schools and off school property. The security feature was installed to help locate a laptop in the event it was reported lost, missing or stolen so that the laptop could be returned to the student.

- How did the security feature work?

Upon a report of a suspected lost, stolen or missing laptop, the feature was activated by the District's security and technology departments. The tracking-security feature was limited to taking a still image of the operator and the operator's screen. This feature has only been used for the limited purpose of locating a lost, stolen or missing laptop. The District has not used the tracking feature or web cam for any other purpose or in any other manner whatsoever.

- Do you anticipate reactivating the tracking-security feature?

Not without express written notification to all students and families.

We regret if this situation has caused any concern or inconvenience among our students and families. We are reviewing the matter and will provide an additional update as soon as information becomes available.

Sincerely,

Dr. Christopher McGinley
Superintendent

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e) (Effective 12/1/07)

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) Contempt. The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

CERTIFICATION PURSUANT TO RULE 37(a)

Mark Haltzman, counsel of the Plaintiff hereby certifies that he attempted to in good faith confer with Charles Mandracchia, Esquire, who represented himself to the undersigned as counsel for deponent Carol Cafiero and who accepted service of the Subpoena referenced in the Motion.

After accepting service of the Subpoena, Mr. Mandracchia then refused to produce Ms. Cafiero claiming that the appearance was "premature." Efforts to convince Mr. Mandracchia to produce his client were unavailing.
